Thanks for taking a look at Smart Calling Online.

Real quick, the deadline to get in before the Grand Opening price is just a few hours away, I see you haven't gotten in yet...and I have a couple of other incentives.

1. I've added yet another bonus! In the member's area, in the Audio section, I put up one of the most popular interviews/teleseminars I've done in all my years of training, "The Twelve Best Questions to Ask Customers and Prospects," with sales trainer Jim Meisenheimer. The title says it all. There are sales pros that have made careers just using Jim's questions. We sold this 55-minute audio on CD for years at $79.
2. We added a split-3-pay plan this morning for those who prefer that option. Well, I've also added a 6-pay plan to really spread it out. I know people whose Starbuck's spend will be more than this monthly. (And that is not making them money.) You can get that only by clicking here and going directly to the shopping cart.

If you want to review everything you'll get, see that here.

OK, let's head on over to the registration page and get you access right now!

See you inside,

PS. Don't forget, you'll also get access to my new, private, exclusive Facebook group of sales pros, opening 4/16. This means you also have access to a community of other like-minded successful sales leaders and pros, and will get additional, ongoing training from me, at no additional charge. Sign up now.
